What they are saying:

After listing twice before with a different realtor and no movement whatsoever, The Conway Team was recommended to me by a friend. I should kiss that friend because Pat is amazing! From the beginning I knew I was working with someone professional and highly experienced. He made recommendations on minor condo updates to make it more sell-able, which made a huge difference. My condo went on the market on a Monday, I got two offers that Saturday. This is the first time I've sold a home and it's a stressful process, but Pat supported me the whole time, calling to check in on me and share updates. It put my mind completely at ease knowing he had my back. I've already recommended him to a few people in my old building — he is that good! If I ever decide to come back to Philly, I will be turning to Pat again. Heather Mallon
